MATERIAL EXPLANATION

ALL-WEATHER FABRIC

All-weather fabric means that it is a water-repellent all-weather fabric where the inside has a TPU liner. The fabric does not make the pad waterproof but gives a very good water repellent effect and makes it difficult for the water to penetrate into the foam.

RESILIENCE FOAM

Resilience foam means a foam with a higher density but softer. Thanks to substances that affects the elasticity the cushion has a faster return than "regular" foam.

3D-PRINTED GLASS

3D printed glass means tempered glass that has been 3D-printed and then burnt which makes it very durable. Completely sealed surface. To compare with HPL in scratch resistance.

316 VS 304 STEEL

316 steel can withstand more acid than 304 steel. The advantage of steel is that you can work with thinner profiles than with aluminum and can design large yet beautiful furniture. Nano-spray works well as cleaning and as a light coating.

NATURAL RATTAN

Natural rattan has a wicker with shell and has more natural color with natural irregularities. With shell it becomes slightly more resistant to wet. However, recommended to be under roof or indoors.
